

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

NON-PROFIT ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

For anyone who is spending too much time each month worrying about how to stretch their budget, the California LifeLine Program can help save money so that people can focus on what matters in their life. With the California LifeLine discounts telephone subscribers can get unlimited local calls for less than $7 a month! People automatically qualify if someone in their household is enrolled in a public program like Medi-Cal or SNAP. Or they can qualify by meeting the income rules. Information and applications are available through the local phone company or at 866-272-0357. California LifeLine is a program of the California Public Utilities Commission.

End: January 31.

Community Care's Senior Information & Assistance Program and the Area Agency on Aging have released the 2011 Lake & Mendocino Counties Senior & Disabled Resource Directory. It's available at area senior centers, libraries, and social services offices, or online at SENIOR RESOURCE DIRECTORY DOT ORG. Other information is at 468-5132.

End: January 31.

The Mendocino Coast Humane Society offers spay, neuter, and microchip services for dogs and cats. They are located at the end of Summers Lane in Fort Bragg. Scheduling an appointment can be made at 964-SPAY.

End: February 29.

KZYX listeners are reminded that all Public Service Announcements can receive publicity from KZYX. Simply submit a PSA at least two weeks in advance. All PSAs received by Wednesday, Noon, are eligible for the following week's PSA list and inclusion on the recorded Community Calendar. A visit to the KZYX website and the link to "Submit PSA" will answer most questions and provide instructions on submitting a PSA through the website, by email, fax, or post office. The website is KZYX DOT ORG.

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

Non-Profit Announcements

ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Willits Center for the Arts presents "Art in the Middle", showcasing the artwork of area middle school students. Friday February 3rd through February 26th. Opening reception Friday February 3rd, 4:00pm to 7:00pm at the Art Center. Gallery hours Thursdays and Fridays from 4:00pm to 7:00pm, and Saturdays and Sundays, noon to 3:00pm. Information at WILLITS CENTER FOR THE ARTS DOT ORG and at 459-5506.

End: February 26.

Redwood Coast Senior Center wants seniors to know that any North Coast Senior, over the age of 60 is eligible for low cost personalized transportation on the Senior Center Buses between 9:00am and 1:00pm. Seniors can get information from the center at 964-0443 to schedule a pick up at their home just like a taxi. More information at the senior center, 490 North Harold Street, Fort Bragg.

End: January 31.

For anyone who has been diagnosed with cancer and are not sure how to pay for medical care, COVERAGE FOR ALL DOT ORG can help. Thousands of cancer patients are eligible for free and low-cost public and private coverage options. Prescription drug manufacturers also offer programs to help pay for medications. COVERAGE FOR ALL DOT ORG is a website to visit to learn about public health insurance programs and services in California. For those without internet access speaking with a counselor is available at a toll free help-line, 1-800-234-1317.

End: January 31.

Military Family Support Service meets monthly at Fort Bragg Veteran's Memorial Hall on Laurel and Harrison in Fort Bragg. The meeting is the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00pm. Military family support is open to family members of deploying or deployed service persons. It's also a good group for parents of youth who are on their way to boot camp.

End: January 31.

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

Non-Profit Announcements

ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

More than 1.6 million youth run away from home each year. It's common knowledge that being a teenager can be tough—especially if a teen feels alone. Whether teens are having a hard time, or just thinking about leaving home, the National Runaway Switchboard can help. And help is available at 1-800-RUNAWAY, or teens can have a live-chat with someone who's ready to help at 1 800 RUNAWAY DOT ORG.

End: February 29.

High schools in the far north state are hosting "Cash-for-College" workshops to assist high school seniors and their families complete the FAFSA (the Free Application for Federal Student Aid). Listing of the closest workshop, and information about what to bring to a workshop, as well as information about Cal Grants and Cash for College scholarships, are at CAL GRANTS DOT ORG and clicking on the link for "Cash for College."

End: February 29.

The Broadband Alliance of Mendocino County invites all listeners to take a Broadband Access Survey available at MENDOCINOBROADBAND DOT ORG, whether their internet access is dial up, DSL, wireless cable access, or nothing. They need to know where it is and is not. Survey results are critical to correct government maps so grants can be won to serve all residents and businesses in the County. Paper surveys are available by calling 937-1677.

End: January 31.

Willits Center for the Arts presents "Art for Everyone", an exciting blend of artwork by 50 local artists, young and old, beginners and professionals. The wide variety of artwork includes sculpture, painting, origami, jewelery, children's art, carved wooden masks from local wood, ceramics, photography, fiber arts, re-purposed containers as collage, stained glass, hand-painted furniture and more. Continuing through January 29th. Information at WILLITS CENTER FOR THE ARTS DOT ORG and at 456-9816.

End: January 29.

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

Non-Profit Announcements

ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

From February 13th to March 18th, Girl Scouts of Northern California will be selling cookies door-to-door and at booths. The Girl Scouts will celebrate "100 years of being 'Forever Green'", debut the lemon flavored "Savannah Smiles" cookie, and go mobile with payments in all nineteen Northern California counties. Information at (415) 392-1000.

Edit: February 13.

Anderson Valley High School now has a Jobs Board for businesses and non-profit organizations that have job openings that could be filled by a high school student. Jobs can be posted at you can post your opening at Anderson Valley High School by calling Stephanie at 895-3274 or stopping by the school's Career Center to post the job in person. The work experience and contact information of students seeking employment will be available on the Jobs Board as well. The Career Center is on the high school campus on Mountainview Road in Boonville.

End: January 31.

The Redwood Coast Humane Society offers adoption, spay, neuter, lost and found, and other services for dogs and cats on the south coast. More information is at 884-1304 and REDWOOD COAST HUMANE DOT ORG.

The Solar Living Institute in Hopland is accepting applications for its 2012 Work-Trade Intern Program. The program runs from April 1st to October 31st. Information at 472-2460 or SOLAR LIVING DOT ORG.

End: January 31.

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

Non-Profit Announcements

ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mendocino Museum's current exhibit is "A Passion for Plants & Place: Carl Purdy of Mendocino County" on view through March 18. The Museum, at 400 East Commercial Street in Willits, is open Wednesdays through Sundays from 10:00am to 4:30pm. More information is at 459-2736 and MENDOCINO MUSEUM DOT ORG.

End: March 18.

KZYX&Z: Public Service Announcements

For-Profit Announcements

ONGOING ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Clear Lake Chamber of Commerce and their visitor center have moved to a new location and invite members and non-members to stop by and say hello. The new address is 14913 Suite C, Lakeshore Drive, Clearlake, Ca. 95422. Information is at 994-3600.

End: January 31.

FP

FP

FP

FP
